題目內容：

Beyond the harbour, where the restless tide
Erases every footprint from the sand,
I watched the distant ships at evening glide,
Each bearing dreams toward an unknown land,
Each guided by an unseen, steady hand.

We cannot know what waits beyond our sight,
Nor read the whole design of years to be;
We choose a course by fragments of the light,
Then learn from every wind and changing sea
That every choice shapes who we come to be.

So when the stars appeared, I understood:
No map can mark the path that we must trace;
The heart must weigh the difficult and good.
True courage is not haste, nor saving face,
But moving forward when our doubts arise.
